

The Hebrew University of Jerusalem
Department of Geography

Faculty Position in Geography

The Department of Geography at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel invites applications for a tenure-track position in geography, starting July 1, 2011.

Applicants must hold a Ph.D. degree at the time of hire, be committed to teaching excellence and be able to demonstrate an active research achievement during a post-doc tenure of at least one year spent at a leading university, indicating the potential for outstanding scholarship. The person hired will teach introductory and advanced courses in Geography and in areas of their specialization. He/she will also be expected to participate in the departmental and university service. Ability to teach in Hebrew is required (in exceptional cases, successful candidates will be expected to teach courses in Hebrew within a few years of their arrival).

Appointment procedures will be conducted in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Hebrew University and are subject to the approval of the university authorities. The university is not obliged to appoint any of the candidates who apply for the position.

Send the following materials by October 1, 2010 to ensure full consideration:

- Curriculum Vitae (including e-mail address) and list of publications (please present books, articles in refereed journals, chapters in books, other publications, as separate items).
- Names, addresses and email addresses of three referees.
- Scientific biography outlining research and teaching interests and research plans for the forthcoming years.
- List of required and elective courses able to teach.
- A letter of application stating your willingness to take the position, starting July 2011.
- Copies of up to 4 recently published articles.

All the above material should be submitted in both electronic and hard copy form.

Applications should be sent to: Professor Rehav Rubin, Chair of Search Committee, Department of Geography, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Mount Scopus, Jerusalem 91905, Israel.
